RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG
ESP-R

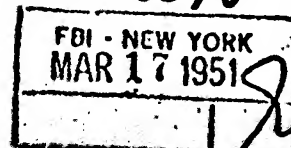

At 1:00 P.M. on 3/16/51 I telephonically contacted Mr. Hennrich and requested the Bureau to get in touch with the Atomic Energy Commission in Washington and advise them that the U.S. Attorney's Office desired to have JOHN LANSDALE, Jr., of Cleveland, Ohio, and JOHN DEERY of Washington, D.C., present in New York on Monday 3/19/51 for conference with the U.S. Attorneys.

I pointed out that these men would be necessary witnesses in connection with this case and would possibly testify on 3/20/51.

Mr. Hennrich stated this would be done unless he instructed to contrary.

MEMO

ESP-R

I called Mr. Hennrich of the Bureau 5:30 P.M. 3/9/51 and advised him William Sheehy, who was connected with the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy as an investigator, and who was formerly a Bureau agent, had advised me he was leaving for Washington the night of 3/9/51 and intended to stop in and see Mr. Ladd of the Bureau and would also see Senator McMahon and point out to them that he felt dissatisfied with the presentation of the evidence in instant case, primarily because of lack of preparation on the part of the U.S. Attorney's Office. He said there was absolutely no criticism of the Bureau and he intended to make that clear to anyone he talked to in Washington but that he felt that in the examination of DAVID GREENGLASS in particular he should not have been questioned in as much detail concerning the atomic bomb prior to the appearance on the stand of Dr. Koski as this would place Dr. Koski in an embarrassing position should the defense decide to cross examine him about the atomic bomb.

I told Mr. Hennrich I had explained to Sheehy that the Bureau was not presenting this case at the trial, as he knew, and that we were making no comment whatsoever concerning the presentation of the evidence in the trial.

I also explained to Mr. Hennrich that Mr. Dennison and Mr. Rollander, representatives of the Atomic Energy Commission, were going to Washington on the night of 3/9/51 with a transcript of the trial and they intended to arrange with Commissioner Dean for a conference with the Attorney General re this matter.

Federal Bureau of Investigation
Court House - Foley Square
New York City

Dear Mr. Harrington:

You will find enclosed (1) a copy of the receipt which we gave Mr. Louis Abel, and (2) three blank checks bearing the signature of Julius Rosenberg. Although the receipt states the amount of $4,000, this was filled in before the money was counted. When the money was counted it was discovered that there was $3,900 rather than $4,000.

The story on the blank checks, as I get it, is this. One time when Julius Rosenberg was going on vacation he left these checks, if I remember correctly with Mr. Bernard Greenglass, in order to get funds for paying the help at the machine shop.

Very sincerely,

O. John Rogge

MEMO

RE: JULIUS ROSENBERG, wa
ESP. - R

At 9:30 PM 3/17/51 SUPERVISOR NEIL MOYNIHAN of the Bureau was telephonically advised that the Saturday, March 17, 1951 issue of the NEW YORK JOURNAL AMERICAN on page 2 contains an article and an artist's diagram of the "Sky Platform". He was advised that this article is entitled "A PLACE TO STAND TO MOVE THE WORLD" and that the diagram was by H. C. DETJE, Copyright 1951 by KING FEATURES SYNDICATE INC. He was advised that the foregoing was being referred to the Bureau in view of our teletype of 3/17/51 concerning USA SAYPOL'S request that FRED DARTWIN and COL. HOLZMAN be in NYC on March 19, 1951 for conference concerning "PROJECT RAND". It was suggested the Bureau upon contacting COL. HOLZMAN concerning USA SAYPOL'S request may wish to call his attention to the above article.

At 9:45 PM SA DUDLEY PAYNE of the WFO was also furnished the foregoing information and it was suggested they may wish to advise MR. DARWIN of this article. SA PAYNE stated that he had already contacted MR. DARWIN and that DARWIN had designated EDWIN F. SWEETSER Deputy Director of "PROJECT RAND" to come to NY on Monday as SWEETSER was more familiar with the overall project than DARWIN. SA PAYNE explained that DARWIN has only been connected with the project for approximately two years whereas SWEETSER has been there several years. SA PAYNE advised that he would see that these men were apprised of the article.

SA WILLIAM NORTON was advised that SWEETSER would be in NYC Monday in place of DARWIN and stated he would so advise USA SAYPOL on 3/19/51.

ESPIONAGE-R

On March 13, 1951 ARTHUR M. LANDECKE, 143 West Quackenbush Avenue, Dumont, New Jersey, was telephonically contacted by this office as a result of a call asking for an Agent. He advised that in connection with the ROSENBERG case that in 1935 he worked at Arma and Company, 254 36 Street, Bush Terminal, Brooklyn, New York. LANDECKE stated that three SOBELL brothers worked at Arma and Company at that time while he was in the Personnel Department.

He said he knew a WALTER SOBELL as Chief Draftsman. He believes that one of the brothers may have been MORTON SOBELL but is not sure of this fact. He claimed that this younger brother was very inquisitive.

The above is submitted for informational purposes.

Mr. Carl Hennrich, Bureau, called at about 2:45 P.M., 3/21/51, and advised that the Supervisor at the Bureau who is handling this case had suggested that, if we have not already done so, we might consider the possibility that HELEN SOBELL, EDITH LEVITOV, and LOUIS SOBELL may be called by the defense relative to the trip to Mexico to prove it was a vacation trip. The possibility also exists that there may be information on the CP backgrounds of these individuals in administrative sections of reports and if we have not already done so, perhaps NYO should give this information to the United States Attorney in case these individuals are called as defense witnesses.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your request that Morris Schreier be interviewed regarding his knowledge of Julius Rosenberg, the results of the interview is being set forth.

✓ Morris Schreier was interviewed by Special Agents Bert S. Taylor and Robert L. Stevenson, Jr., March 22, 1951 at his office, 734 Broadway, New York City. Mr. Schreier advised that Dr. George Bernhardt, 40 Monroe Street, New York City, is his personal physician and that from a period of March to August, 1950, he visited Dr. Bernhardt at 40 Monroe Street about twenty times in order to take injections for hay fever.

Mr. Schreier advised that during his visits to Dr. Bernhardt he saw Julius Rosenberg at the office about three to six times. He stated further that Rosenberg impressed him as being a very "tight lipped person."

Mr. Schreier said that the only remarks he ever heard Rosenberg make were to a nine year old son of Dr. Bernhardt. He said Dr. Bernhardt's son was a Yankee baseball fan and that on the few occasions he saw Rosenberg, Rosenberg discussed baseball with the Doctor's son. Mr. Schreier said that he never heard Rosenberg or Dr. Bernhardt discuss any vacation trips, or any other matter.
